I went on my first cruise in Mar 2012 and was loving all the little towel animals every day on the bed. Too cute! I missed the towel animal class they had on board, so when I got back I found this here on and have made some cute little animals of my own. I got married in Oct 2012, and had a few guests in a hotel nearby, so I prepared little welcome baskets for them and made a towel animal for each guests bed. They loved it!!!!!!11 of 11 people found the following review helpful. Good insructions, but the book looks homemade - not good to give as a giftBy momwith2kidsLooking back at the description I see "Spiral Bound" in the title, and if I look closer I see the book dimensions are 8.5 x 5 inches. I wish I had looked at this before purchasing. The book looks like someone took it to a copy center and made it. It is SMALL - not a full size book. It is spiral bound. The pages look like glossy photocopies. Yes, the instructions are clear. If you are getting it for yourself as instructions it would be suitable. I got it hoping to wrap it up as a gift for a family member who just got back from a cruise, but after receiving it I realize it's a bit too "cheap" looking to make a nice gift. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. fun with towels By Customer Bought for daughter we love it

Step by step instruction on how to make 8 towel animals, like they make on cruise ships, by folding towels. 15 color pictures of the finished animals. Detailed instructions are in pictures and text. Picture instructions are in black and white for better detail and show an actual towel being folded, not a drawing. Spiral binding enables the book to lay flat so you don't have to hold the book open while making the projects. Animals included are monkey, lobster, sitting dog, playful pup, elephant, duck, sea turtle and snail.
