Kooler Design Studio : Kids' Knitted Sweaters More (Leisure Arts #4399) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Kids' Knitted Sweaters More (Leisure Arts #4399):

Not Labeled WellBy swamptrötterLovely patterns but it should be noted on the cover that these sweaters are knit from the top down and most use circular needles. I don't like knit from the top down and can't use circular needles effectively. Great book but just doesn't meet my needs.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. For my GrandchildrenBy CCitygirlI was thrilled to find a copy of this book. I was purchasing yarns when I left my original copy behind. It is rich with patterns for projects for children. They are varied, colorful and instructions are well-written. My granddaughters love the book, too. Just yesterday my 3 1/2 yr. old granddaughter was showing the book to her "baby" (baby doll) asking her which one she'd like to have. The other granddaughter wants to know when her "Red Riding Hood" (red poncho) will be ready.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The best patterns I have found for young childrenBy Elisabeth PriceI've knitted several items for my granddaughter from this book. I love the designs, some of which are unusual without being impractical. I found the instructions I used to be clear and accurate. The illustrations are not only delightful to look at but helpful in constructing the garments. An ideal knitting book!

Following their creed of minimal finishing, Deb and Lynda Gemmell and fellow Cabin Fever designers bring you more than 30 delightful fashions for children. Most of the designs are knit in one piece or constructed from one of three different directions. Choose a cozy pullover knit in the round from the bottom up or from the top down. Or choose a cardigan or vest made in one piece, working back and forth on a circular needle. These can also be knitted from the top down with no seams to sew. For something different, work a sweater from each of the cuffs and then join in the middle. There also is a poncho, beaded bag, tunic and hat, hoodie vest, and bare midriff slipover. Your special little ones will love wearing these amazing creations, which are great for experienced as well as beginning knitters
